Shall We Humor Him?

We note the following in the Santa Cruz News:

"Last week one of the News staff had occasion to visit Carmel. But as he walked along the beach, he was at times surprised and shocked to see signs warning the pedestrian that some beauty spot, unenclosed and uninhabited, was private property, and that no one could without trespassing tread upon the sacred soil."

Too bad. But do the people of Santa Cruz permit visitors to picnic on and tramp about on private property? Carmel is a good-sized town, with many public vantage points from which to view the sea, the beach, the trees, and the sunsets, so why complain of private restrictions? However, we might adopt the suggestion of the News editor—get together and right this monstrous wrong. We might provide an airstrip for sightseeing visitors, so that their profane feet touch not our "sacred soil."

Phil Whiting left on Sunday evening's train on a business trip to San Francisco.

Rumors are in the air to the effect that shortly work will be commenced on a two-story brick business building on Ocean Avenue.

"George Sterling, waiter: r. Bohemian Club," says the new San Francisco Directory. "Mayhap the 'waiter' was a misprint for 'writer,'" says the Pacific Grove Review, "but wherefore simple 'writer' for the poet who took the testimony of the suns?"

Beginning next Monday morning, Tax Collector England will be at the City Hall to receive payment of city taxes. You have until Monday, December 27, to pay without penalty.

Much building activity and sale of property prevails at Pebble Beach. Among those who contemplate building are George Barr McCutcheon, W. S. Hook Jr. of Los Angeles, Helen Crocker and Matt Harrison of San Francisco.

The Pine Cone has a well equipped job printing plant.

To old-timers at least the name of Carmel's pioneer hostelry, Pine Inn, is a thing almost sacred, and they do not warm up to the new name recently bestowed upon it by the new managers. It is now the Old Lantern Inn.

Goold's Stage, Transfer and Auto Hire office now at old building across from Carmel Garage. Phone 605 W 5.

Next week is Teachers' Institute, and school will be closed. Will the kids be pleased? We'll say they will.

Mrs. Charles Leonard Smith of Oakland is spending this month here with Mrs. Stanton, wife of the Examiner's managing editor. They have the Comins bungalow.

Margaret Nellie Smith, daughter of Mrs. Peter Wimmer, was married at St. Paul's Methodist Church in San Jose on October 4. She is now Mrs. Chas. Schell. Mr. Schell is a machinist and engineer. They are making their home at Mountain View.

The local bakery reopened Monday. No more toting greasy doughnuts and mushy pies over Carmel Hill.

BUILDING

in its broadest sense is the natural instinct of a vast majority of all human beings.

When General Emilio Aguinaldo was leading the Filipino army against the American forces twenty years ago he probably little dreamed that some day a daughter of his would visit the city of Washington and would be given a great reception at the famous Congressional Club! And that the wives of 120 members of the American Congress and two wives of members of the President's cabinet would call upon her to pay their respects!

But all this actually happened when Miss Carmen Aguinaldo, his nineteen-year-old daughter, visited Washington recently. And those wives of the American statesmen expressed themselves as both charmed and surprised at the refined, tactful, college educated young miss who greeted them.

"PARTY FACES DISASTER"—GORE

Senator Thomas Gore, Democrat, of Oklahoma, who was defeated for re-nomination through the influence of the White House because of his opposition to the League of Nations, plainly indicates that he proposes to continue his fight upon the league. The blind senator says:

"The paramount issue is to avert disaster; nobody favors the league that understands it.

"The women of Maine have read it. It is no wonder about the women. It is no marvel about the mothers. They are not willing to mortgage the pound of flesh nearest their hearts.

"They are not willing to sign this bloody bond which is a first lien upon the life of every boy beneath the stars and stripes.

"He was blind indeed who had not already seen the black shadow of the Maine elections visioned upon the horizon."

$30,000,000—COX

GOVERNOR JAMES M. COX.

From a photograph taken at Seattle, Wash., during the Democratic Candidate's recent visit to the Pacific Coast.

JIMMY'S COAT.

Take a slant at Jimmy's coat,
 Tiger-striped, as you will note;
 Murphysque in lines and hue,
 Taggart-like in motif too.

How can he proclaim he's dry
 With this garb to shock the eye?
 Tailors wouldn't dare to put
 Such a thing on "Pussyfoot."

Jimmy's raiment harks us back
 To the festive racing track.
 Can't you hear the "bookies" shout
 And the whispers of the tout?

Needn't tell us where he's at—
 Wet or dry—his coat tells that.
 Bryan took one slant at it,
 Then his heart curled up and quit.

—CARLTON FITCHETT.

BACK PORCH CAMPAIGN TO BE BEGUN SOON BY WILSON

Washington. — Gradually being pushed to the rear by the progress of the campaign it is now announced that President Wilson is to wage a "Back Porch" campaign. The local evening papers announce this fact and say that the plan is being discussed by the Administration leaders. It may even come within a week, some of these leaders believe. Edmund H. Moore, who managed Governor Cox's pre-convention campaign, is given credit for this rear attack on the Harding method of using the front porch.

"Kept Us Out of War" Now Serves Cox

Publisher's Son Escaped Military Service Through Democratic Nominee's Influence.

Young, able-bodied, rich, a strapping big fellow, who possessed all the physical equipment of an American soldier, save, evidently, heart, Robert P. Scripps was kept out of the war through Administration influences.

He was exempted.

The local draft board of Butler County, O., rejected his plea and held that there was no valid claim for his exemption and that he should surely don a uniform and shoulder arms, but Secretary of War Baker's law partner, Tom Sidlo, was employed to save the youthful slacker. Governor Cox took a hand in the case, and finally, by White House decree, he went scot free.

His multi-millionaire father, E. W. Scripps, controlling owner of the Scripps League of Newspapers and the Newspaper Enterprise Association, a powerful combination, threatened to overthrow the Administration rather than permit either of his sons to answer the call of Uncle Sam.

Administration Exempts Slacker.

Having helped to re-elect Woodrow Wilson President on the issue, "He kept us out of war," the elder Scripps demanded that his sons be kept out of war. And the Administration kept them out.

Young Robert Scripps, who had never done any real newspaper work, was given the title of Assistant to the Publisher of the Scripps League of Newspapers to create an excuse for his exemption. Finally he was ordered home from Camp Sherman by Governor Cox, after he had been in uniform for ten days.

All these facts and more of an equally astounding and discreditable character were brought out by the Kenyon Senatorial Committee, which subpoenaed young Scripps to Washington to explain his activities in the present campaign.

Now Supporting Cox.

He is today editor in chief of the Scripps League of Newspapers and the Newspaper Enterprise Association and is putting out daily pink propaganda sheets of a lurid and sensational character in support of the candidacy of Governor Cox.

Samples of these sheets were submitted to the committee, and Senator Reed, Democrat, frankly denounced the propaganda as "rot" and manifested extreme impatience and disgust with the young man's loose talk about a "Senate oligarchy" and criticism of the Supreme Court.

Young Scripps, although he did not fight for his country in 1917-18, insisted that he was doing it all through love of country and in the "public interest," without any pay from the Democratic committee or thought of obligation for keeping him out of war.

The draft-dodging aspects of the case, as brought out at Washington, are not unlike those of young Bergdoll of Philadelphia, which resulted in a Federal prosecution for conspiracy to evade the draft.

Every person mentally and physically able to do so should take the American Red Cross instruction in First Aid Treatment. It's a life-saver and a pain-saver on the farm, in the factory, on the street, at the office, in the home, wherever accidents may occur. Here's a young wife who ineptly wielded a can-opener and received a ugly gash across her wrist from the jagged can lid. Mother was there, however, with the First Aid kit and Red Cross instruction, and probably prevented a case of blood poison by giving prompt and proper treatment before the doctor arrived.

THE GALVESTON SEA WALL.

GALVESTON has the finest harbor on the gulf coast and ranks high as a city of delightful homes. Although not a resort, the semitropical climate attracts thousands of tourists annually to her long, gradually sloping beach.

To prevent a recurrence of the terrible flood of 1900, the sea wall—one of the sights of the country—was constructed along the gulf side of the city. This great wall is 22,403 feet long, 17 feet high, 16 feet wide at the bottom and five feet wide on top. It is built of concrete and granite and rests on a foundation of piling. These piles are 40 feet long, not less than 12 inches in diameter at the small end, four rows wide, set four feet apart. The top of the wall is used for a walk.

To prevent water from the gulf flowing behind the wall and flooding the city during severe storms, the grade of a large portion of the city was raised from 2 to 17 feet. This necessitated the raising of about 2,500 buildings and the readjustment of streets, sidewalks, street car tracks, electric lights, water and gas pipes to the new level.

The filling-in material was taken from the bay. The dredges, after pumping their holds full, steamed up a canal behind the wall and discharged their load through pipe lines leading down the various streets. When the work was completed the canal was filled. The magnitude of this undertaking is unparalleled in America.

YOUR RED CROSS

The American Red Cross, by its Congressional charter, is officially designated:

To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war, in accordance with the conventions of Geneva.

To act in matters of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the American people and their Army and Navy.

To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods and other great calamities.

To devise and carry on measures for preventing these causes of suffering.

Through its Health Service the American Red Cross has begun a nationwide concentrated effort in co-operation with established organizations to reduce greatly the amount of preventable disease and physical defects found among the country's 100,000,000 population. Education is its most powerful tool. Special attention is devoted to children, and this picture shows a typical Red Cross welfare clinic where little ones are treated and mothers instructed in the proper care of them.

"If President Harding is as big a success as Editor Harding he will go down in history in the Hall of Fame," writes J. Gabbert of Riverside, Cal. in an article just published on his return from Marion, where he visited Harding's paper.

"We found just the sort of a paper a future President might be expected to edit," says Mr. Gabbert, "and the visit, to us, came nearer to being an editorial conference than a political crusade."

"We found men working for Editor Harding who had been with him for periods varying from 20 to 35 years. We found that Editor Harding follows closely every detail incident to the publication of his paper. He knows what pay the helpers on the floor get, just as he knows the amount he pays his manager. He can handle type like the rest of us, and it would keep my foreman busy to beat him on setting up a stick of 8-point type. He knows how to make up a paper like a veteran and he is just as much at home in the business office looking over the advertising accounts."

The Cox slogan seems to be "Misrepresentation Without Relaxation."
